

8 Careers That Use AP[®] English Language and Composition

Oh, the possibilities...

Politicians

Have a vision for making their communities and country better by leading the charge for change.

Fundraisers

Make a difference in the world by convincing donors to contribute to worthwhile causes.

Content Writers

Use their writing skills to create a variety of content.

Educators

Help students strengthen their reading, writing, and communication skills.

Salespeople

Actively persuade customers to spend money on specific products and/or services

Lawyers

Think critically about how to use evidence to present the best argument in the courtroom.

Journalists

Research, write, edit, proofread, and file news stories, features, and articles.

Editors

Plan, coordinate, revise, correct, and format written content for publication.