

10 Careers That Use AP® Environmental Science

Oh, the possibilities...

Agricultural and Food Scientists

Work with farmers to improve the quality and quantity of their yields.

Aquaculturists

Work in the natural environment to ensure fishing sites are fished in responsible ways.

Conservation Scientists

Help industries balance economic goals while limiting their environmental impact.

Forestry Technicians

Develop, manage, use, and protect woodlands and other natural resources.

Wildlife Technicians

Help wildlife biologists and conservation scientists by gathering data on animals.

Environmental Engineers

Design systems that protect the environment.

Environmental Consultants

Work with companies to reduce their overall carbon footprint.

Environmental Lawyers

Specialize in laws that protect land, air, and water.

Marine Biologists

Study the behaviors of marine organisms and their interactions with the environment.

Ecologists

Study relationships in ecosystems to determine how humans impact these ecosystems.